Die letzten Entdecker Naomi J. Williams
2015-11-16 Im Auftrag des französischen Königs, ausgerüstet mit dem modernsten Gerätschaften, begleitet von ebenso wichtigen wie neugierigen Wissenschaftler, sticht Lapérouse in See - in der Hoffnung, irgendwo einen Flecken Erde zu entdecken, auf dem die englische Flagge noch nicht gehisst ist.

Angetrieben von Pflichtbewusstsein, Idealismus, Eitelkeit oder schlich-ter Not bergen die beiden Schiffe sehr unterschiedliche Abenteurer. Eines ist allen - vom einfachen Matrosen bis zum geltungsbewussten Naturwissenschaftler - gemeinsam: die Bereitschaft, das eigene Leben aufs Spiel zu setzen für eine Entdeckung, die ihnen den Eintrag in die Geschichtsbücher sichert. Als sie 1788 endlich auf die ersehnte

›terra incognita‹ stoßen, lediglich eine kleine Insel in der Südsee, ist ihre Begeisterung längst von den Schrecken der bisherigen Reise überschattet. »In ›Die letzten Entdecker‹ zaubert Naomi J. Williams mit stilistischer wie sprachlicher Gewandtheit ganze Welten hervor, äußere wie innere, flink von einem Setting zum anderen, von einem Herzen zum nächsten springend. So schafft sie ein Buch, das ebenso bewegend und großartig ist wie die Reise, die hier beschrieben wird.« JOSH WEIL

Reading and the Reference Librarian Juris Dilevko 2014-10-16 Reference librarians are no longer expected to know much about the information they find; they are merely expected to find it. Technological competency rather than knowledge has become the order of the day. In many respects, reference service has become a matter of typing search terms into a library's online catalog or a web search engine and providing the patron with the results of the search. Calling for a re-intellectualization of reference librarianship, this book suggests another approach to providing quality reference service--reading. The authors surveyed both academic reference librarians and public library reference personnel in the United States and Canada about their reading habits. From the 950 responses, the authors present findings about the extent to which librarians read newspapers, periodicals, fiction and nonfiction, and recount and analyze stories about how reading has made them better librarians. The authors also report that North American professors in the humanities and social sciences believe that the best reference librarians are those who have wide-ranging, subject-based knowledge as opposed to the type of process-based, functional knowledge that is increasingly dominating the curricula of many Library and Information Science programs.
